

COUNCIL OF AGENCIES SERVING
SOUTH ASIANS

BRING YOUR OWN BYLAWS

Come learn how to bring your bylaws and letters patent into compliance with Ontario's Not-for-profit Corporations Act (ONCA).

ONCA was proclaimed on October 19, 2021. Nonprofits have until October 18, 2024 to make necessary updates.

To help you with this, CASSA is pleased to present Bring Your Own Bylaws: ONCA Transition Working Session, in partnership with Community Legal Education Ontario (CLEO) and made possible by funding from the Law Foundation of Ontario.

When: Thursday, August 16, 2023

Time: Drop in between 10 AM – 2 PM

Where: Zoom

Cost: FREE

Register

<https://tinyurl.com/bdhsfy6s>

THIS SESSION IS FOR:

- Board members/directors of Ontario-incorporated nonprofits
- Executive Directors, CEOs, or other staff members working as board liaisons of Ontario-incorporated nonprofits
- Other leaders with governance responsibilities in Ontario-incorporated nonprofits

THIS SESSION IS NOT FOR:

- Organizations that are not themselves incorporated but part of a larger organization or government
- Organizations incorporated under the Canada Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, the Co-operative Corporations Act, or other statutes outside of Ontario

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR

Benjamin Miller (he/him) is a staff lawyer on CLEO's Nonprofit Law Ontario project. Over the past five years at CLEO, Benjamin has answered over a thousand nonprofit law questions and developed an online interactive bylaw builder for the ONCA.