Special Guest

Jessica Singh

Innovative Global Development Leader | 16+ Years of Experience with NGOs & Social Impact Orgs | Research, Writing, Arts, & Grants

Jessica Singh has 7 years of experience in grant writing, she has developed a robust track record of securing funding for individual artists and arts and culture organizations. Her expertise lies in crafting compelling grant applications that have successfully raised $1.6 million from federal, provincial, and municipal sources.

She has a proven history of writing successful grant applications for major funding bodies including the Canada Council for the Arts, Ontario Arts Council, Toronto Arts Council, Ontario Trillium Foundation, United Way, Canadian Heritage, the Ontario government, and the City of Toronto. Her strategic approach and deep understanding of funding requirements have enabled her to navigate complex application processes and secure substantial funding to support a diverse range of creative projects and initiatives.

The next informative session will be on Mental Health, January 2025.
